W|N Named to InterContinental Finance Magazine's 2014 Top 250 Leading Firm List

January 10, 2014

Workman Nydegger has been ranked by InterContinental Finance magazine as one of 250 leading firms for 2014. The international magazine that also ranks finance and advisory firms selects leading firms based on "consistent client care, inventive approach, superior commitment to problem solving and continental focus."

A panel of judges for the 3-year-old publication selected 250 law firms from a pool of firms located in "all corners of the globe." The magazine is one of 10 produced by InterContinental Finance that is distributed to more than 158,000 annually.

Founded more than 30 years ago, Workman Nydegger has consistently earned recognition as one of the top intellectual property firms in the nation. The firm represents a wide array of clients in all areas of intellectual property law, including patent, trademark, copyright, unfair competition, and related litigation and licensing matters, and in a diverse range of technologies, including computer systems, software, e-commerce and information technology; electronics and electrical engineering; pharmaceutical, nutraceutical, chemical, biotechnology, and medical and life science technologies; physics and optics; mechanics and mechanical engineering and alternative energy.
