

Jamie Bame Joins Workman Nydegger as an Associate

February 12, 2026

Workman Nydegger is pleased to welcome Jamie Bame as an associate to the firm.

Jamie practices as a litigator in all areas of intellectual property law with a special focus on patent and trademark litigation. After graduating in the top 10% of her law school class, Jamie gained considerable patent litigation experience while clerking for the Honorable Colm F. Connolly in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware. Jamie then gained valuable appellate experience as a clerk for the Honorable Joel M. Carson III for the United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit. As a law student, Jamie worked as an editor for the BYU Law Review and as a teaching assistant for the first-year legal research and writing course. Jamie is barred in Utah, New Mexico, and California.

Workman Nydegger specializes in intellectual property law and litigation. The firm represents a wide array of clients in all areas of intellectual property law, including patent, trademark, copyright, litigation and prosecution, unfair competition and related licensing matters, and possesses expertise in a diverse range of technologies, including computer systems, software, e-commerce and information technology; electronics and electrical engineering; pharmaceutical, nutraceutical, chemical, biotechnology, and medical and life science technologies; physics and optics; mechanics and mechanical engineering and alternative energy.
