

Workman Nydegger Recognized in Chambers USA 2026 Guide

June 4, 2026

Workman Nydegger is honored to be recognized for Intellectual Property in the 2026 edition of Chambers USA, a prestigious legal guide showcasing the nation's top law firms and attorneys.

Chambers USA evaluates firms and individual attorneys based on rigorous criteria, including technical expertise, professional conduct, client service, and industry knowledge.

This year, three Workman Nydegger attorneys were recognized for their exceptional contributions to Intellectual Property law:

John C. Stringham – Intellectual Property

Michael J. Frodsham – Intellectual Property

David P. Johnson – Intellectual Property

Workman Nydegger specializes in intellectual property law and litigation. The firm represents a wide array of clients in all areas of intellectual property law, including patent, trademark, copyright, litigation and prosecution, unfair competition, and related licensing matters, and possesses expertise in a diverse range of technologies, including computer systems, software, e-commerce, and information technology; electronics and electrical engineering; pharmaceutical, nutraceutical, chemical, biotechnology, and medical and life science technologies; physics and optics; mechanics and mechanical engineering and alternative energy.
