John C. Stringham

Shareholder

With over 30 years of experience, John Stringham is registered to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office and is admitted to the U.S. Supreme Court, the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals, and the Utah Supreme Court. His practice includes all facets of intellectual property law with an emphasis on the preparation and prosecution of patent, trademark, and copyright applications in the U.S. and foreign countries.

John also engages in the preparation of licensing, publishing, and other agreements related to intellectual property, as well as opinions regarding infringement, validity, and availability of patents, trademarks, and copyrights. He handles inter partes proceedings before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office and due diligence investigations regarding intellectual property portfolios.

Experienced with a number of technologies including computer software/internet, business methods, medical device and biomedical technologies, and general mechanical systems, John has worked with multiple companies from start-up through billion dollar valuations and has been intimately involved in developing IP strategy and associated portfolios for those companies. He has worked with numerous companies through IPO and after.
