

Dana L. Tangren

President & Managing Shareholder

---

With over three decades assisting clients in managing patent portfolios and developing procurement strategies, Dana Tangren is an IP prosecutor with a broad range of skills in mechanical, electro-mechanical, bio-mechanical, production and processing, and medical device technologies. His background in engineering enables him to successfully guide and consult individual inventors and large international corporations in patent and trademark procurement and enforcement, due diligence investigations, licensing, invalidity and infringement analysis, and clearance studies.

As a “lifer” at Workman Nydegger, Dana currently serves as the firm’s Managing Shareholder.
