

IP Counseling

Our attorneys are masters of their crafts, allowing them to strategically counsel and help protect your innovative technologies and brands. We work closely with key innovators and business managers to not only understand the technical details of your innovations but also how those details are expected to yield a sales advantage for your company. We will work to ensure your IP portfolio is strong and enforceable while staying within your budget and helping you to avoid costly disputes.

Workman Nydegger has protected some of the world's largest and most sophisticated innovations. Our close working relationship with the United States Patent and Trademark Office allows us to resolve issues and reach resolutions quickly. We also work with an extensive network of IP law firms in virtually all countries. Our international IP counseling and prosecution work has resulted in the following statistics since the firm was established in 1984:
