Litigation

Workman Nydegger litigates in virtually every forum to defend and enforce your intellectual property, copyright claims, and e-commerce violations. Our experience spans state and federal courts throughout the country, the Patent Trial and Appeal Board, Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, and various courts of appeal. We represent both plaintiffs and defendants from start-ups to well-established Fortune 500 companies.

Our team of expert litigators are some of the most recognized IP lawyers in the state of Utah. With Utah's exploding technology scene, we are at the forefront of successfully protecting and defending numerous emerging technology companies. We'll customize a pricing model that maximizes the value of our services for you and your company.
