workman nydegger

Three W|N Shareholders Receive Highest Peer Recognition by Martindale-Hubbell®

May 13, 2013

W|N's Rick Nydegger, Brent Lorimer and John Stringham, all of whom are shareholders, have been recognized with*Martindale-Hubbell's*® AV Preeminent® rating, which is its highest rating in both the ethical and legal ability categories. Founded over 140 years ago, Martindale-Hubbell® provides Peer Review Ratings™ that are an objective indicator of a lawyer's high ethical standards and professional ability, generated from evaluations of lawyers by other members of the bar and the judiciary. It is one of the most respected and widely used rating services in the country.Martindale-Hubbell's ® AV Preeminent® rating is its highest rating in both the ethical and legal ability categories, and is "a testament to the fact that a lawyer's peers rank him or her at the highest level of professional excellence."

Founded more than 25 years ago, Workman Nydegger is one of the largest firms in Salt Lake, and has consistently earned recognition as one of the top intellectual property firms in the nation. The firm represents a wide array of clients in all areas of intellectual property law, including patent, trademark, copyright, unfair competition, and related litigation and licensing matters in a diverse range of technologies, including computer systems, software, e-commerce and information technology; electronics and electrical engineering; pharmaceutical, nutraceutical, chemical, biotechnology, and medical and life science technologies; physics and optics; mechanics and mechanical engineering and alternative energy.