

Alysha A. Miller

Paralegal

With over 24 years of experience in the legal industry, Alysha Miller is a prosecution paralegal specializing in U.S. and Foreign patent prosecution.

Working at Workman Nydegger for nearly 19 years, Alysha has worked as an IP Assistant, a docketing specialist and, for the past ten years, as an IP Paralegal working with both domestic and foreign clients who specialize in a large range of technologies. Managing a large docket of U.S. and international patent portfolios, she has assisted in filing hundreds of new patent applications. Her seasoned knowledge of the patent process and procedures allows her to successfully and efficiently navigate the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office online databases and filing systems.

Often described as hardworking and able to work well under pressure, Alysha unwinds from the world of patents by spending time with her husband, two kids, and family dog. She also enjoys reading and traveling.

Education

B.A., History, Brigham Young University, 2000
