workman nydegger

Lisa Bateman

Paralegal

For over 30 years, Lisa Bateman has worked in the legal field. Starting her career in Banking, Corporate, and Corporate Bankruptcy, she then settled into intellectual property in 2007 and has been sharpening her skills ever since.

Lisa’s intellectual property experience is deep and wide and includes working with Foreign Patent and Trademark Prosecution, U.S. Patent and Trademark Prosecution, including preparing and filing Trademark and Patent Applications. Lisa also has experience with U.S. Customs and Border Patrol Intellectual Property Rights - Trademark Recordation and Renewals.

When she’s not furthering intellectual property matters on behalf of clients, she enjoys reading and gardening.

Education

Paralegal Certificate

Paralegal Studies, Weber State University, 2004

Services

International IP

Patents

Trademarks