

Brian N. Platt

Shareholder

Brian's practice focuses on the protection of intellectual property rights, including patents, trademarks, trade secrets, and copyrights. Managing high-stakes patent litigation matters around the world, including the United States, Germany, the Netherlands, and China, Brian's experience encompasses litigating numerous patent and technology matters in the areas of video and streaming, computer systems and software, and content security, and anti-counterfeiting.

As a former in-house Director of Litigation for Kudelski SA (SIX: KUD), Brian focuses not only on litigation matters, but on creative business solutions to underlying disputes. As a result, clients worldwide hire him to assist with complex technology and business litigation matters in the US, Europe, Latin America, and Asia.

Brian's experience also includes anti-counterfeiting and e-commerce litigation, where he has obtained asset seizure orders, temporary restraining orders, and preliminary and permanent injunctions against numerous counterfeiters and copycats worldwide.

A registered Professional Engineer, Brian worked as a consultant and design engineer in Seattle, WA for seven years before becoming an attorney.
