workman nydegger

Ethan Boyce

Paralegal

Ethan Boyce has worked in the legal field for nearly a decade with the majority of his experience in intellectual property law. His dedication to continuing his legal education and expertise ensures the best outcome for all clients.

Helping clients ranging from small start-ups to multi-million-dollar corporations, Ethan has experience working with U.S. and Foreign Patent and Trademark Prosecution, including preparing and filing Applications and Office Action Responses, as well as attending to maintenance and renewal deadlines.

Appreciating the value of every client through his steadfast work ethic and calm approach to challenging situations, Ethan most enjoys the small victories throughout the prosecution process and celebrating a client's success as Issued Patents and Trademark Registrations are obtained.

When not in the office, Ethan enjoys spending time with his family, including coaching soccer and enjoying a myriad of sports together.

Education

Associate of Science Degree, Ensign College, 2012

Services

International IP

Patents

Trademarks