workman nydegger

Rachel Dodge

Paralegal

With nearly 20 years in the legal field, Rachel has experience as a paralegal/legal assistant, assisting in a variety of roles throughout her career and specializing in civil and commercial litigation.

With extensive experience managing litigation cases at the state and federal levels, Rachel currently serves the Litigation group as a docketing specialist and paralegal.

When Rachel Is not working, she listens to true crime podcasts and enjoys fishing with her husband.

Education

B.S., Business System Technologies, Weber State University, 2008

A.A.S., Web Development, Ensign College (formerly LDS Business College), 2003

Services

Litigation

Patents