

Workman Nydegger Welcomes 2025 Winter/Spring Semester IP Interns

February 4, 2025

Workman Nydegger is excited to welcome Lexi Felt and Nelson Bjazevich as the 2025 Winter/Spring Semester IP Interns to the firm.

Lexi is a mechanical engineering student at the University of Utah, who brings a passion for understanding and optimizing complex systems.

Nelson is a student at Brigham Young University, majoring in Chemistry. He excels in research and enjoys understanding and explaining difficult concepts to others.

During their internship, Lexi and Nelson will gain hands-on experience in intellectual property law, patent research, and working alongside the firm's experienced professionals.

Workman Nydegger specializes in intellectual property law and litigation. The firm represents a wide array of clients in all areas of intellectual property law, including patent, trademark, copyright, litigation and prosecution, unfair competition, and related licensing matters, and possesses expertise in a diverse range of technologies, including computer systems, software, e-commerce, and information technology; electronics and electrical engineering; pharmaceutical, nutraceutical, chemical, biotechnology, and medical and life science technologies; physics and optics; mechanics and mechanical engineering and alternative energy.
